TERRITORIAL RESEARCH FOR LOWELL, MASSACHUSETTS

Following are some dominating territorial spirits identified, so that spiritual warfare and prevailing prayer may be rendered to help pull down strongholds and to help bind and defeat opposing satanic forces in these areas as you pray.

Pray against the spirits of:

- Muslim
- Hinduism
- Materialism
- Islam (Sunni)
- Asian spirits
- Cultural Religious spirits
- Idolatry
- Witchcraft (Wiccans/Psychic -soothsaying - necromancy - channeling – 35+ places found)
- New Age
- Freemason / The Scottish Rite of Freemasonry
- False doctrine
- Discouragement / Depression and Suicide
- Deception
- Drug and Alcohol Addiction
- Violence and Crime
- Competitiveness
- Division and Strife
- Covetousness and Greed
- Worldly Entertainment
- Homosexuality
- Flattery
- All other ungodly spirits sensed in the Spirit

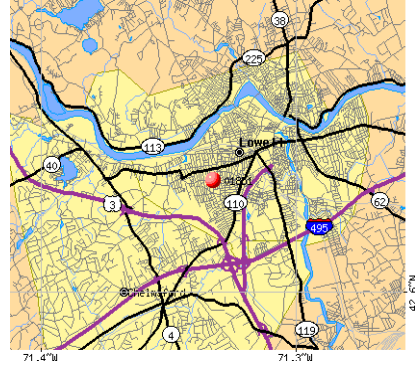

Afterwards, the Spirit of God may be loosed so that the light of the glorious gospel may shine to bring forth:

- Salvation
- Deliverance
- Restoration
- Healing
- God's divine will into all targeted localities

Pray that souls are delivered from spiritual blindness and that the revelation of one God and Jesus name is unveiled in the identity of Christ. Pray for a mighty outpouring of God's Spirit in these areas, resulting in Apostolic revival and harvest, and the manifestation of the Shekinah glory of God!

Lowell, Massachusetts

Lowell is a city in the in the U.S. Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Located in Middlesex County, Lowell (along with Cambridge) served as a county seat until Massachusetts disbanded county government in 1999.^[2] With an estimated population of 109,945 in 2014,^[3] it is the fourth-largest city in Massachusetts, and the second-largest in the Boston metropolitan statistical area.^[4] The city is also part of a smaller Massachusetts statistical area called Greater Lowell, as well as New England's Merrimack Valley region.

Incorporated in 1826 to serve as a mill town, Lowell was named after Francis Cabot Lowell, a local figure in the Industrial Revolution. The city became known as the cradle of the American Industrial Revolution, due to a large series of textile mills and factories. Many of the Lowell's historic manufacturing sites were later preserved by the National Park Service to create Lowell National Historical Park.^[5] During the Cambodian genocide, the city took in an influx of refugees, leading to a Cambodia Town and America's second-largest Cambodian-American population.^[6] Lowell is home to two higher education schools, the University of Massachusetts Lowell and Middlesex Community College.
