

PRAYER FOCUS

Many children/teenagers establish a strong relationship with the Lord when they are young. They are part of the church of today, not just the church of tomorrow. It's important that we consistently pray for them and train them to have an unshakable relationship with God. Young people who are strong in faith and prayer most often grow into adulthood establishing their own strong families who are active in ministry.

PRAYER POINTS

- That they would develop good relationships with others who would not pull them away from the Lord.
- That they would willingly help their parents with responsibility around the home.
- That parents would take ownership of training their children in the ways of the Lord and have consistent times of prayer and devotion in the home.
- That they would obey their parents, even when they don't understand.
- That parents would have wisdom to correct them.
- That they would be involved in ministry and develop their own relationship with God.
- That they would be able to resist the temptations of the world.
- That they would develop a desire to read God's Word.
