

FIND A PRAYER PARTNER

When God created man he said, “It is not good that man should be alone.” There are times to be alone and there are times to be with other people. Praying with a prayer partner is one of those special times in our lives when the Lord is very present. Jesus often prayed with Peter, James and John. They had a prayer partnership. Later we see Peter and John going to the Temple together at the hour of prayer. Two walked together on the road to Emmaus and their hearts burned within them as the Lord joined in their conversation.

“If two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven. For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them” (Matthew 18:19-20).

Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labor. For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but woe to him that is alone when he falls; for he has not another to help him up. Again, if two lie together, then they have heat: but how can one be warm alone? And if one prevail against him, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken (Ecclesiastes 4:9-12).

God even keeps a record of those who often speak one to another of Him. Then they that feared the LORD spoke often one to another: and the LORD hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon his name. And they shall be mine, says the LORD of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spares his own son that serves him (Malachi 3:16).

How To Choose A Prayer Partner

- Someone of the same gender (male or female).
- Someone with whom you can confide.
- Someone with whom you enjoy fellowship and sharing.
- Someone who is spiritually mature.
- Someone who needs you, as you need him/her.
- Someone faithful who will keep the appointment.
- Someone with a “kindred spirit.”
- Someone you trust implicitly.
